WHAT: Construction update on the new Events Center

WHEN: Tuesday, February 17, 2009 at 6 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

WHERE: CityView Apartments
Community Room (595 W. Church Street)

Residents, Property Owners and Merchants - please join the City of Orlando, the Orlando Magic and the Events Center construction team for an update.

This is your opportunity to hear an update on the construction occurring over the next four months related to the new Events Center. Road closure and detour information related to the construction will be made available and discussed in detail.

As we continue to move forward, there will be many more key activities and milestones during the construction process. To keep you informed throughout this historic undertaking, the City will provide ongoing communication during the construction process. For the most up-to-date information, visit www.cityoforlando.net.

Light refreshments will be served.
