Board discussion ensued. Executive Secretary Cechman indicated that the parking solution would create a space that did not meet current code, but that the situation would be better than before. He also pointed out that this would be the last body art shop allowed in Downtown Orlando until more development comes in, due to limitations on the number of such shops in the code.

Board member Carmody moved APPROVAL of the VARIANCE, subject to the following conditions:

(Sec 61.303)

5. The business shall be limited to one customer and one worker on the site at any time, appointments only, in order to reduce the parking demands for the proposed personal service (tattoo parlor).

6. The relief granted through the variance is restricted to the subject property, RLMG Tattoo Inc. and business plan as noted in this report. All changes to ownership, tenant, or business plan shall necessitate the need for a new variance review and approval prior to permits being issued.

7. No review required from urban design for this parking variance; however, future improvements to the building (including signage) must be reviewed with the Historic Preservation Officer. Contact Richard Forbes at 407.246.3350 or Richard.Forbes@cityoforlando.net for the needed certificates of appropriateness for the site for any exterior improvements.
