9 DATE.

10 WHEREAS, although the Florida Presidential Preference Primary ("PPP") traditionally had 11 been held in March, for the Presidential election years 2008 and 2012, the Florida
12 legislature set the dates for the Presidential Preference Primary election on January 19,
13 2008 and January 29, 2012, respectively.

14 WHEREAS, in response to the legislature changing the PPP dates, the City of Orlando
15 changed its City Code provisions to create a permanent City general election date of the 16 first Tuesday in April so that it would have a permanent date for its elections that was not 17 impacted by the decisions of the state legislature.

18 WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature has moved Florida's 2016 Presidential Preference
19 Primary to March 15, 2016;

20 WHEREAS, the Orange County Supervisor of Elections has expressed concerns about the 21 City of Orlando and the 2016 PPP being held so close together due to an overlap in the 22 absentee ballot period for the two elections, electors potentially voting in different precincts
23 for the two races and general voter confusion which could result from the proximity of the 24 two elections.
25

1 WHEREAS, in response to the Florida legislature's decision and to address the Supervisor
2 of Election's issues, the City of Orlando is considering a companion ordinance to this
3 ordinance amending the City Code to move the City's General Election date to the first
4 Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the odd-numbered years;

6 and be electors of the City and, for district commissioner candidates, in the district, for one
7 year prior to qualifying;

8 WHEREAS, but for the change in general election dates, the end of the qualifying period
9 would have been February 5, 2016, but due to the change, the end of the qualifying period
10 will move forward to September 4, 2015;

11 WHEREAS, in fairness to prospective candidates who were relying on the previous election
12 schedule, this ordinance provides for a one-time adjustment to the one year requirement.
