

OASIS After-School Program and Summer Camp

The City of Orlando's Recreation Division offers safe and affordable after school and summer camp programs for elementary and middle school age children. This five-day a week program, at over a dozen City recreation centers, offers a diverse array of activities, such as homework time, computer lab, arts and crafts, nutrition and fitness, sports, fun free time, community service projects and field trips (an additional expense). Reduced rates available for low income families.
